

Age – Earth's and Heaven's Time

Earth

The time on earth is measured in years. Wisdom is measured in years but may or may not be determined by years. Wisdom is the practical knowledge or application of a fact. For most of us, Wisdom comes by making errors (this is called the hard way). Wisdom may come by reading and applying God's way of acting upon a fact (this is the best way). Wisdom may come by listening to others that are going through or have gone through the same problem as you (this is called the easy way).

Today few cultures honor those that have Age. Age or Old usually is 20 years older than you. So, if you were 50 then 70 would be Old. And so on...

Age is commonly broken down as the following. These are guidelines:

- 0 – 12 (youth)
- 13 – 23 (young adult)
- 24 – 49 (adult)
- 50 – 65 (middle aged)
- 66 – 89 (old)
- 90 + (very old)

Most of us retire at age of 72. This varies upon the condition of the individual (age, financial, and health).

I'm at the delicate age group: too old to work and too young to retire.

Age is determined by years that represent 365 days in a year, except leap year of 366 days. Each day has 24 hours in a day.

The saying goes, "time was invented so you don't have to do everything all at once."

In the grand scheme of history, human life is short. All of our plans and schemes amount to little more than mist or vapor when held up against the backdrop of eternity.

Heaven

There is no time in Heaven. Maturity is measured against God's Wisdom and Truth. I have a lot to learn.

A story about eternity. A hummingbird travels once a year to sharpen its beak. It travels to a granite mountain the size of Mt Everest. The hummingbird chips one grain off the mountain per year. The number of years to reduce this mountain to dust would be one day in eternity.

The purpose of the Holy Spirit is to reveal Jesus. The purpose of Jesus is to reveal the Father. The purpose of the Father is to send Jesus and the Holy Spirit to bring us to Him. Perfect Harmony. They never had a power struggle amongst themselves.

The Father, Son, and Holy Spirit are the Godhead.

Mike