

He wants you to be obedient not perfect!

Through opposition you have grown much, and your abilities now surpass that which you used to have. But your calling is to be obedient and to exercise your faith and trust in God's wisdom. That you have done. He wants you to be obedient not perfect.

Mike