

How to make decisions

How to make decisions in life is what I want to communicate in this email. This is my method of making decisions.

First, we have a Will. We are complex individuals with a Will. The Will is the ability to make a decision on a matter or issue.

Second, there are no right or wrong answers only consequences. We need, I need to make all decisions based upon consequences. There are consequences based on our choices.

All decisions are based upon our Will and Consequences. Now is the part we get to decide on the outcome of our decisions.

All decisions are based upon three factors: Man, Satan, and God. If we choose God ways, we choose the best possible choice for making decisions. We may choose wrong or right, it is our decision to make. What to do when a decision has both good and evil in it is the most hard to decide. You need Godly wisdom, understanding, and God's grace to guide you.

Let consider Baseball. Say I would give you $100 for every fair hit baseball. What position would you choose to play? Statistics shows that short-stop or second-base are the two positions that most fair hit baseballs will go to. Any position will work but short-stop or second-base will net you the most money.

Decisions are like baseball positions, all works but some are better than others.

Next, we or I must learn how to make "decisions" to prevent problems. We have many types to choose from: Family, Church, Government, Friends, Relationship, and Experiences to name a few. Government being the focus for this decision making process. One should review the party platform to see what a candidate believes.

Let us recap "How to make decisions". Decisions are: based upon the Will, there are consequences, God provides the best choices, and decisions best fit within a group or category.

Next, I must decide what God says about the decision. Some decisions do not require this step. Say I was to decide to wear a "yellow" or "red" shirt. As long as the pants are neutral I can wear (choose) either shirt.

To decide what God says, one has the following sources to address: 10 Commandments, Bible, and Holy Spirit.

Next, if the above passes the tests, then one must look at what the US Constitution says about the matter or issue. This applies for all government matters.

We are "blessed" with a Godly heritage and wisdom from our forefathers:

It is impossible to rightly govern a nation without God and the Bible

George Washington

Experience teaches us that it is much easier to prevent an enemy from redeployment themselves than it is to dislodge them after they have got possession.

George Washington

Firearms are second only to the Constitution in importance; they are the peoples' liberty's teeth.

George Washington

Government is not reason; it is not eloquent; it is force. Like fire, it is a dangerous servant and a fearful master.

George Washington

Government is instituted for the common good; for the protection, safety, prosperity, and happiness of the people; and not for profit, honor, or private interest of any one man, family, or class of men; therefore, the people alone have an incontestable, unalienable, and indefeasible right to institute government; and to reform, alter, or totally change the same, when their protection, safety, prosperity, and happiness require it.

John Adams, Thoughts on Government, 1776

"Our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other."

John Adams, Thoughts on Government, 1776

A Bill of Rights is what the people are entitled to against every government, and what no just government should refuse, or rest on inference.

Thomas Jefferson

A wise and frugal government, which shall leave men free to regulate their own pursuits of industry and improvement, and shall not take from the mouth of labor the bread it has earned - this is the sum of good government.

Thomas Jefferson

All tyranny needs to gain a foothold is for people of good conscience to remain silent.

Thomas Jefferson

We in America do not have government by the majority. We have government by the majority who participate.

Thomas Jefferson

Socialism only works in two places: Heaven where they don't need it and hell where they already have it."

Ronald Reagan

'Here's my strategy on the Cold War: 'We win, they lose.'

Ronald Reagan

'The most terrifying words in the English language are: I'm from the government and I'm here to help.'

Ronald Reagan

Conclusion

Without God what does one expect? Lack of morality is a problem. Unity in Jesus Christ is the answer. Man must value what God values and give God preeminence in all decision making.

Our focus is doing the things that will help save souls (guided by the Holy Spirit) and vote like Christians/Americans. We should love the things that God loves and hate the things that God hates...Love the sinner and hate the sin should be our motto. Obedience to God is the plan to execute.

My saying is it takes less effort to prevent a problem than to fix a problem.

My saying is it is never wrong to do right, in the eyes of the Lord (Jesus Christ).
